

J.K. ROWLING

THE ICKABOG

In Chapter Five we discover how Daisy Dovetail is getting on in her new home. She is getting sadder every day that passes since her mother died. For a while she is able to wear all the dresses her mother once made for her.

Draw a different dress design on each strip of paper. Then cut out the strips and make a Flip-O-Rama. On each strip of paper try to make Daisy Dovetail slightly larger, so her dresses appear to become smaller and smaller and smaller.

